About Chief William Flamm…

Chief William Flamm entered the Cincinnati Fire Department on June 16, 1931 at the age of 22 and retired on September, 2 1964. Chief Flamm demonstrated extreme dedication to his responsibilities as a firefighter, never missing one day of work in his 33 years of service despite sustaining several injuries while on duty. On one occasion he fell over two stories while fighting a fire and on another he severely burned both his hands, yet he reported to the station the following day ready to work.

Most notably, Chief Flamm was the youngest Fire Marshall (District Chief), at the age of 29, in the history of the fire department and served as one of two assistant chiefs. He was considered an incredible leader--smart, caring & respectful – he always put the safety of his fire fighters & the rescue of the fire victims as top priorities.

The Chief William Flamm Memorial Scholarship has been established by his family to honor his exemplary service and dedication to the firefighting profession. The Scholarship will provide financial assistance to firefighters attending courses to expand their knowledge & skills in the "Fire Science" program which may lead to a B. S. degree.
