

Professor Mary Beth Privitera joins the Academy of Fellows for IDSA

Dr. Mary Beth Privitera of the Biomedical Engineering Program was inducted into the Industrial Designers Society of America's Academy of Fellows during the IDSA International Conference 2016. Dr. Privitera serves as director of UC's Medical Device Innovation and Entrepreneurship Program. Her design work spans endovascular neurosurgery, cardiology, general and vascular surgery, wound healing, temperature management and central access devices.