

11/24/2020

Advanced Standing- UC Fire Science*

You are closer than you may know to a degree, through certifications earned in your professional training.

I. The following certifications may be used to fulfill Fire Science technical electives- 3 credit hours at the Associate level and 15 more at the Bachelor level, maximum total 18:

- FF II 3
- Paramedic 9
- EMT 3
- State Fire Instructor 3
- Fire Officer I, II, III, IV 3, 3, 3, 3
- Fire Marshal 3

II. The following certifications may be used to fulfill courses:

- BLUE CARD 3 FST 4077 Contemporary Issues
- HAZMAT Tech 3 FST 2049 Hazardous Materials
- Fire Inspector 3 FST 3082 Fire Prevention Org & Mgmt.
- BERT Technician 3 FST 2079 FF Safety & Risk Mgmt.
- NFA residency courses 3 Equivalent UC Fire Science Courses

III. Ohio Fire Executive (OFE) graduate, or National Fire Academy Executive Fire Officer (EFO) graduate without Bachelor Degree

- 12 Technical Elective credits (3 at the Associate level)
- 3 credit hours for FST4082, Applications of Fire Research (for use at Bachelor level)

*Note: UC College of Engineering & Applied Science requires min. of 40 credit hours be earned at UC to receive a degree.

 Note: if Fire Officer III/ IV is taught as a combined class, 3 credits awarded in FST4081 (Personnel Management).